Attorney for Defendant

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

vs.

Lonnie Williams,
Defendant.

No. CR 05-00383 PJH

Stipulation and Proposed Order
Modifying Conditions of Release

Stipulation

The undersigned parties in this case stipulate:

1. On June 3, 2005 Magistrate Judge Maria-Elena James ordered defendant released from custody upon specified conditions including electronic monitoring by Pretrial Services.

2. The parties have consulted with Richard Sarlatte of Pretrial Services, and in accordance with his recommendation the parties hereby agree and stipulate that the conditions of release should be modified as follows:

3. Defendant no longer needs to be on electronic monitoring, and that condition of release shall be removed.

4. Defendant shall be subject to a new condition of release, that is, he shall be subject to automated curfew at 10 p.m., or at the discretion of Pretrial Services.

5. Defendant shall be subject to two stay away orders as new conditions of release, that is, he must stay away from the Sunnysdale Projects in San Francisco, and he must stay away from all members and associates of the street gang known as Down Below Gangsters (also known as "DBG")

Stipulation

1 or "324").

2 This document has been electronically filed by Mark Rosenbush, attorney for Defendant. I
3 have personally discussed the above matters with counsel whose signatures appear below, and I attest
4 that they have agreed to the foregoing stipulation, and join the request for the attached proposed 5 order.
